This trip is a quilt-enthusiast's dream! Enjoy a "Sneak Preview" to the Paducah AQS Quilt show before it opens to the public. Experience three full days at the show viewing hundreds of quilts on display, attending classes and lectures (own cost), and shopping at over 282 vendor booths offering a wide myriad of products. Visit the National Quilt Museum, which honors today's quilter showcasing over 200 quilts in a 30,000 square-foot building. Over 40 antique quilts are displayed for you to view at the Rotary Club Quilt Show. There's more shopping opportunities at Paducah's Hancock Fabric Store which declares itself the largest fabric store in the nation. Two evenings of entertainment include a theatre production and a quilting theme variety show. Explore the city of Paducah where you'll find many of the shops join in the quilt celebration with their own quilt related displays and offerings. There are trolley rides, sidewalk sales, museums, historic river walk with floodwall murals, church bazaars with their own quilt shows, bookstores, antique stores and of course more fabric shops to discover. Travel day stops include the International Quilt Study Center, Missouri Star Quilt Company and time permitting, a few surprises along the way.
