

WHERE ARE THEY NOW? Founding Members - Gloria Greenlee

I AM A QUILTER!

I was hooked from the first, because I already loved fabric. I could be called a full-blown "fabriholic". I was a member of that group who met in Rawlins to organize WSQG and what fun that has been ever since.

My husband and I moved to Bandera, Texas to spend each winter. We had proved we could survive the Wyoming winters for ten years, and we didn't have to keep on proving it.

All joking aside, our four kids in Texas had been on our case to move down for the winters, so we finally listened. The only way we survive that, is that we come back to Wyoming for June to September each year and reconnect with quilters and other friends. I try to come to Quilt Wyoming each year and have taught in many of them.

Gloria displayed her beautiful pineapple quilt at Quilt Wyoming 2013 in Casper.

I have slowed down on teaching, but still do trunk shows. My life still centers around quilting, and I still make seven or eight quilts per year. As long as it's still fun and I'm able, I'll continue to do so. My best friends are quilters! My health is still great, I still have plenty of fabric to make up partly because I keep buying more as Jim says "buy all you want"! But, what the heck, I love fabric and quilting!

I may win that contest, the winner is the person who dies with the most fabric.

Come by for coffee in Bandera, in Texas Hill Country or Arlington, in the Medicine Bow Mountains in Wyoming.

Editor's Notes

It's important to note: If you temporarily change your address and request to have mail forwarded, bulk mail will not be forwarded. It may be best to be added temporarily to the list of members who choose to read the newsletter on line. The mailed copy status may be reinstated when you return to your permanent address. We must pay postage to mail initially and then again when it is returned to us.

Big Thanks to Mary Lee Dixon who has been devoted to preserving WSQG history through the Wyoming Archives.

Sherry Reynolds is working feverishly to meet deadlines but will return for the November-December issue.
